

Florida State Horticultural Society Honorary Membership

The Florida State Horticultural Society (FSHS) recognizes members who have rendered special meritorious service to the society and to the advancement of horticulture in Florida by being designated an Honorary Member.

Please consider your peers, make nominations and return the below form to the Secretary by April 15 with your nomination.

Nomination of Honorary Member

Instructions:

1. Nominations may be made by any member of FSHS.
2. Nominee must be a member of FSHS.
3. Return completed nomination forms and documents to the Secretary Lynn Barber (labarber@ufl.edu) by April 15.

Nominee:

Address:

Sponsor:

Signature:

Address:

QUALIFICATIONS OF NOMINEE

1. Position(s) held with dates.
2. Nominee's contributions and services to the Society, including direct and effective participation in affairs and activities of the Society.
3. Candidate's contributions and services to Florida horticulture. This may include publications and/or contributions in administration, extension, research, teaching, business, industry, participation in other scientific, professional or honorary organizations and/or industry groups, offices held and/or honors received, and recognition by employer.
4. Biographical summary of Honorary Member nominee, for use in the event the nominee is elected. Limit to 1 page, double spaced (200 to 300 words), listing 'key' achievements and activities, suitable for publication in the Proceedings.